PROGRAM SPOTLIGHT

SPREAD THE LOVE: HUMANE SOCIETY OF JEFFERSON COUNTY DONATION COLLECTION

February – All month

For the month of February, the PML TAB (Teen Advisory Board) will be collecting donations for the Humane Society of Jefferson County. Help us “Spread the Love” by dropping off your donation in the upper level of the library at any time this month. For each item donated, patrons may enter a raffle to win a variety of prizes! The Humane Society is looking for Purina One Dog and Cat/Kitten Food, KMR formula, garbage bags, bleach, hand sanitizer, liquid hand soap, paper towels, and postage stamps, as well as any monetary donations. Pick up a Wish List from the library for a more detailed list of desired donations. PML, TAB, and HSJC thank you for any and all donations!

DIY TECHNIQUE TUESDAY

Tuesday, February 7th at 4:30 p.m.

Our monthly DIY craft for February is, of course, Valentine’s themed! Come on over to the library this afternoon to make your own homemade Valentine’s Day Card!

BLIND DATE WITH A BOOK

Friday, February 10th – All Day

Stop by the library today for a blind date with a book! In the spirit of Valentine’s Day, we will display a selection of covered books, each with a brief summary. Based on your first impressions, check out a book of your choice!

RANDOM ACTS OF KINDNESS WEEK

Monday, February 13th through Friday, February 17th

Join us at the Powers Memorial Library as we celebrate National Random Acts of Kindness Day throughout the third week of February! Stop by the library on Monday the 13th to write a letter to someone you love, on Tuesday the 14th to write an uplifting post on someone’s Facebook or Twitter account, on Wednesday the 15th to post one of your favorite family-friendly roll-on-the-floor-laughing jokes in the library, on Thursday the 16th to treat yourself to 30 minutes of quiet reading in the library, and on Friday the 17th to donate to our “Spread the Love: Humane Society of Jefferson County Donation Collection” program!
